"The nuclear family, consisting of a married man, his spouse or spouses, and their children, is the fundamental social and economic unit among the Siriono. Most of the activities of the culture, in fact, revolve around the nuclear family. Hunting is largely a family affair, as are fishing, collecting, and agriculture. Siriono society, moreover contains no specialists; the only occupational differences are those based on sex and age. Hence all work such as basket making, tool making, weapon making, and pot making must be done within the family. So important is the nuclear family that the culture contains few activities and the society performs few functions that are not embodied in or performed by individual family groups."
